Briefs

'J.F.K.' OK

Dallas County commissioners tentatively agreed Tuesday to allow director Oliver Stone to shoot scenes for his film about President Kennedy's assassination inside the former Texas Schoolbook Depository. But don't expect the "J.F.K." cameras to roll on the sixth floor, where Lee Harvey Oswald is said to have taken aim. That floor houses an assassination exhibit run by the local historical society. A final vote is expected next week.